STARTING IN SLALOM

There are two entry levels for Canoe Slalom competitions in the UK. The first is Division 4 and is aimed at inexperienced canoeists. The events take place on easy water and the course set will be relatively simple.

The second entry level is Division 2 and is aimed at those paddlers with white water experience. Here paddlers enter the special open event. The cost is the same as for a Division 2 entry. The paddler's result is compared with those in Division 2. The paddler can then apply for ranking from the Ranking Status Officer (see elsewhere in this yearbook) using the result as evidence for Divisions 2 or 3.

As both systems are entry level, day membership of the B.C.U. is acceptable (available at the event). Comprehensive membership will be required when you are promoted to Division 3 or apply for ranking status.

You don't need a slalom boat to compete. Boats of any dimension may be used at Canoe Slaloms in Divisions 1 to 4, so you can use the boat you're comfortable with.

(Note that dimensions relating to safety still apply.)
