6th JUNIOR WORLD CANOE RACING CHAMPIONSHIPS, LAKE MOTOSU, JAPAN

22nd - 26th July, 1995

Thirty-eight countries participated in the sixth Junior World Canoe Racing Championships which were held in the Far East for the first time.

Because of the international and domestic performances of Paul Darby-Dowman and Tim Brabants earlier this year, we were expecting good results. It became apparent to those watching the races in Japan that these expectations could be fulfilled when they won their K2 semi-final convincingly. In the final they paced their race so that they were accelerating for the finishing line. By half way they were fifth and at 60m from the end they were third. At the finish they were 0.07 secs. ahead of the Hungarian crew and 0.08 secs. ahead of the Poles to win the K2 500m Junior World Championship, in what was the closest and probably the most exciting race of the regatta. What a joy it was to see GB ahead of Hungary, Poland and Romania (who came fourth).

The next morning Tim Brabants had to compete in a semi-final of the 1000m singles. He found this a hard race but came third and qualified for the final where he raced brilliantly to take the bronze medal behind the Hungarian and Swede.

The Junior Women K4 500m crew of Rachel Train, Lucy Hardy, Louise Cheyne and Kelly McGee missed reaching the final by 2.5 secs. and the Junior Men Crew of Andrew Morgan, Nick Fowler, Daniel Golder and David Oliver missed the 1000m K4 final by 1.8 secs after qualifying for the semi-final directly from the heat. Mark Hoile had the misfortune to capsize 10m from the finishing line in the K1 500m repechage in what, until then, had probably been his best ever race. In the K1 events Karl Yurkwich found the opposition very hard.

In the medal table Great Britain came sixth. Fourteen countries won medals but only seven of them won gold. They were Hungary (4), Germany (3), Russia (3), Slovakia (2) and the Czech Republic, Great Britain and Australia (1 each).

All of the paddlers deserve credit for the committed and mature way in which they approached this event. The cohesive nature of the team helped Paul and Tim in their Junior World Championship quest. Everyone was helped by the £5 500 which was donated towards the considerable expense involved in attending an event so far away. On behalf of all the team, I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of those individuals and clubs who were involved in fund-raising and who gave so freely. Your generous support helped to put everyone in a positive frame of mind.
