Guest Speaker: Jon White

Jon White

Jon White is a former Royal Marines officer. He joined the Corps aged just 19 and successfully underwent Young Officer training. He completed several tours as a Troop Commander and Company Second-in-Command before specialising as a Mountain Leader. After this he undertook a short operational tour in Afghanistan as a Liaison Officer for the Harrier Force and high level ground commanders. His final military command was of 40 Commando's Reconnaissance Troop. It was while on patrol in Afghanistan with his Troop in 2010 that he stepped on a Pressure Plate Improvised Explosive Device and lost three limbs.

Since then, Jon has been on the road to recovery, continually seeking new challenges and proving that a strong will and sharp mind can overcome almost anything. Notably, he successfully completed the Devizes to Westminster Canoe Race in 2012 with Colour Sergeant Lee Waters. A feat he repeated in 2019, knocking two hours off his previous time. He now enjoys racing in Marathon, sprint and ocean races, for the latter he represents Team GB. He has built a home for Channel 4's Grand Designs and has forged a career as a leadership and resilience consultant, helping organisations improve their performance by focusing on better leadership. He also works as a motivational speaker. As Jon says, "I deliver keynote speeches at conferences and events. I tell my story and use it to inspire people by making them realise what they are capable of and what their organisations are capable of."

Recently he has also turned his hand to manufacturing V bars.
