ATTENTION ALL NOVICES

If you are successful at this event and gain promotion (1 in 5 starters, or part thereof in each class plus any other Canadians who would have been promoted had their score been in Mens K.1) then you will need a Bib in order to complete in Division 4 events.

You will need to send the following information:

1. Promotion Certificate
2. B.C.U. Card (or receipt if joined recently)
3. £5 cheque or postal order (£6 after 1st April - payable to B.C.U. Slalom Committee)
4. Large self-addressed envelope, stamped at the rate for 200 grammes (40p 1st/30p 2nd Class)

To the appropriate Division 4 Bib Officer:

MENS K.1	LADIES K.1	CANADIANS (C.1 + C.2)
Mrs J MacInnes	Mrs B Hill	Mrs S Blair
65 Dunster Road	59 Macadam Way	125 Bull Baulk
West Bridgford	Penrith	Middleton Cheney
Nottingham	Cumbria	Banbury, Oxon
NG2 6JE	CA11 9HE	OX17 2SP

Your bib should be returned within 2 weeks and meanwhile you allowed the next 2 weekends "grace" when you may paddle without a bib provided that an application has been made.

You will be sent separately a complimentary yearbook which contains all the information you need to know about Slalom including full Rules & Calender.

ATTENTION DIVISION FOUR PADDLERS

If you get promoted you should send your Div 4 Bib to the appropriate Div 3 Bib Officer. Full details in Pages 68/69 of 1988 yearbook.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS.

On behalf of Viking Kayak Club I would like to thank everybody who helped in any way to make the event possible.

To our Sponsors, Slalom Sports U.K., for their generous support towards the magnificent array of prizes and for the computerised results service.

To North Bedfordshire Borough Council, the landowners, for the kind permission to use the site.

To all the visiting officials who did such a marvellous job.

To the Jury, Mrs. Sue Janes, Phil Gooding and Jim Croft who had such a hard job in dealing with the protest. (Upheld!)

To all you competitors for being so co-operative and bearing with us when things were running a bit late on Sunday. Congratulations to those of you promoted, and to the rest of you better luck next time!

I must add my personal thanks to all those members of Viking Kayak Club who turned out to put up the course and to do all the Thousand and One other things which go into running an event.

Finally, the one sour note of the weekend, A dark blue "Shadow" 2,000, with white stripes, in kevlar and diolen was stolen from the campsite on Saturday Night. If anybody has any information which may be useful in recovering this boat will they please contact me on Bedford 215441, or Mrs. Ann Barrie of Nomad Kayak Club (address in yearbook).

THIS TYPE OF ACTION IS NOT WANTED IN OUR SPORT.

March, 1988. Mike Carter - Organiser.
