Inter-Services Sprint Championship 2023

Trophy: Wei-Hai-Wei Cup

Results:

1 Army Canoe Union

2 Royal Navy

3 Royal Air Force

The annual Inter-Service Championship was held alongside the MacGregor National Inter-Club Challenge.

This competition pits kayakers from across HM Armed Forces against each other, vying for the Wei-Hai-Wei cup, the trophy awarded each year to the winning Service, won this year by the Army Canoe Union.

The Royal Air Force organised this year's event working with the regatta team and trialling the new site location, with all three Services being co-located along the regatta course.

Prior to the weekend, the three Services competed for the Inter-Service Marathon held on the Trent with support from Nottingham Kayak Club, won this year by the Army Canoe Union.

Each Service had a mix of abilities from Novice paddlers to ex-GB Sprinters, making for a tight contest across the board. All of teams consisted of both Regular and Reserve Service kayakers.

A prize giving ceremony was held on the Sprint Sunday with Trophies and Medals presented by Capt RN S Jose.
